

B Medical Systems - Purchase Order Abbreviation Description

Abbreviation	Term	Definition
NoReq	No Requirements	Those items have not been identified as having a specific certificate requirement by B Medical Systems.
CoC type 2.1	Certificate of Compliance Type 2.1 according DIN EN 10204 norm	Document in which the supplier (manufacturer) declares that the products supplied comply with the requirements specified in the purchase order without obligation to provide specific test results.
CoC type 2.2	Certificate of Compliance Type 2.2 according DIN EN 10204 norm	Document in which the supplier (manufacturer) declares that the products supplied comply with the requirements specified in the purchase order and in which he supplies test results on non-specific inspection
CoC type 3.1	Certificate of Compliance Type 3.1 according DIN EN 10204 norm	Document in which the supplier (manufacturer) declares that the products delivered comply with the requirements specified in the purchase order and in which he provides the results of tests or controls, e.g.: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Test results proofing the compliance to special characteristics, e.g. "corrosion resistance"</li> <li>b) Calibration results of a measuring device or measuring sensor</li> <li>c) End of line test results</li> <li>d) In case of first samples: Test reports of 3 marked parts</li> </ul> This document must be signed by an authorized person.
Sig BOM	Signed Bill of Material	Bill of Material that has been signed by the supplier. With this signature the supplier confirms to fully respect the BOM in the production of the part to be supplied to B Medical Systems.
MSDS	Material Safety Data Sheet	Document in which the physical and chemical properties of the part are being described.